

Family Vacation Spots

How do you choose your next family vacation spot?

Step 1:

The first step in planning your next family vacation is deciding where you want to go! It sounds like an easy task, but when you are traveling with family you need to consider the travel, accommodations, and activities are suited for the whole family. Some of the family vacation spots we recommend in the USA and abroad are:

- Park City, Utah
- Kona, Hawaii
- Puerto Rico
- Cabo San Lucas, Mexico
- Mazatlan, Mexico
- Texas Hill Country, Texas
- Puerto Vallarta, Mexico

We recommend these family vacation spots because these resorts offer activities for all members of the family. Whether you want to spend time at a beautiful beach building sand castles, skiing with your children, or going horseback riding, all of these destinations feature family friendly resorts. Family resorts are accommodations with multiple living spaces and bedrooms as well as kitchens. You can choose to dine in or dine out, have multiple amenities to choose from and you also will have plenty of room to relax and play.

Step 2:

How do we get there? Whether you are traveling by plane or car, we can help you get to your next family vacation spot. You can book your airfare directly to your resort at our Perfect Family Vacation website and avoid paying any service fees. If you are traveling by car, here are some tips and resources for road trips with your children:
